

TEMPORARY PROGRAMME v24.10.2023

Conference on District Heating networks

A cross-cutting perspective: Hauts-de-France-Denmark on the role of District Heating in the territorial ecological transition.

Tuesday, 14th November 2023
Quai de l'Innovation, 80000 Amiens

Event with simultaneous translation (English/French)

Time
09:00	Arrival and welcome coffee	Quai de l'innovation - Le patio
09:30	Start of the conference Morning session moderated together by Noémi Schneider, Danish Energy Agency, and Yannick Paillet, Head of the Department of Ecological Transition and Energy, Amiens Metropolis	Grand Amphi
09:35	Welcome speech <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mrs Brigitte Fouré, Mayor of Amiens • H.E. Mr Michael Starbæk Christensen, Ambassador of Denmark in France • Mr Eric Vidalenc, Deputy Regional Director of ADEME Hauts-de-France (HdF) 	Grand Amphi
10:00	The role of energy planning in the development of district heating networks: Perspectives from Hauts-de-France and Denmark <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ademe HdF: Christophe Roger, Coordinator for District Heating, Biomass and Renewable Electricity • Danish Energy Agency: Noémi Schneider, Advisor • City of Amiens: Florence Rodinger, Deputy Mayor of Amiens, Counsellor of the City of Amiens • DREAL: Pascal Fasquel, Deputy Director of the Air-Climate-Energy Department • Hauts-de-France Region: Nathalie Mandaron, Project Manager 	Panel Discussion: Introductory presentation followed by a round table and discussion between the speakers. Feedback from the Ademe Hauts-de-France - Danish Energy Agency workshop. Discussion on the different approaches taken. Grand Amphi
10:45	Q&A with the audience	Engaging with the audience using the Mentimeter application
11:00	The Danish Delegation - Danish Board of District Heating (DBDH) by Morten Duedahl: International exchange on district heating networks.	Grand Amphi
11:10	Coffee-break	Le Patio
11:30	Successful district heating project: Sharing experiences with local authorities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Heat Highway: a structured district heating network for the European metropolis of Lille, Mr. Ghislain Ferran, Director of Energy and Climate Transitions, MEL 	Individual presentations and cross-perspectives on the development of district heating networks in France and Denmark - the role of local authorities in this development approach and in defining the public service delegation (governance, financing...).

TEMPORARY PROGRAMME v24.10.2023

Conference on District Heating networks

A cross-cutting perspective: Hauts-de-France-Denmark on the role of District Heating in the territorial ecological transition.

Tuesday, 14th November 2023
Quai de l'Innovation, 80000 Amiens

Event with simultaneous translation (English/French)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • City of Soissons: a network accessible to all, by Eric Maison, General Director of Technical Services for the City and Community of Soissons (tbc) • An innovative governance model, by Vincent Pibouleu, CEO of Amiens Énergies • Sonfor - a Danish municipality and its district heating network, by Christian Udby, Director of Sonfor, Sønderborg Municipality 	Grand Amphi
12:40	Q&A with the audience	Engaging with the audience using the Mentimeter application Grand Amphi
12:50	Lunch break – buffet and networking	Le Patio
14:10	Start afternoon session This session will be chaired by Morten Duedahl, Danish District Heating Association	Grand Amphi
14:15	The development of district heating networks: Evolution of needs, consumer profiles and financing approaches. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Danish Energy Agency: Noémi Schneider, Advisor • Dalkia: Sébastien Laskowski, Regional Director for Picardie at Dalkia • Engie Solutions: Please indicate the name of the speaker • Danfoss: Flexumers in Copenhagen (HOFOR case, tbc) 	Discussion with panel members and moderator A moderated discussion that includes audience interaction using the Mentimeter application. Grand Amphi
15:00	Local resources to improve the share of renewable and recoverable energy in networks: Biomass, waste heat, geothermal, heat pumps, solar thermal and storage <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Manergy: The Danish experience of viable sectoral coupling (tbc) • Dall Energy (green waste)/Savo Solar (solar thermal)/Aalborg CSP (thermal storage): The choice of local sources • Valenciennes Métropole, Mr Florian Blanchet (Head of Climate Planning Department): The importance of waste heat • Municipality of Montdidier, Rodolphe Bral (Director): a multi-energy network (solar thermal-wood) 	Individual presentations and cross perspectives on the development of district heating networks in France and Denmark - local renewable resources, planning, coupling and economic benefits Grand Amphi

EMBASSY OF DENMARK
Ambassade du Danemark

Danish Energy Agency

DBDH

TEMPORARY PROGRAMME v24.10.2023

Conference on District Heating networks

A cross-cutting perspective: Hauts-de-France-Denmark on the role of District Heating in the territorial ecological transition.

Tuesday, 14th November 2023
Quai de l'Innovation, 80000 Amiens

Event with simultaneous translation (English/French)

16:00	Technological advances for district heating networks: Digitisation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Joint presentation: Heat optimisation with Igrid/Grundfos and Isoplus Joint presentation: Fault detection from Kingspan-Logstor and Kamstrup Other Danish cases/innovative digital solutions. Q&A with the audience	Technologies at the centre of the discussion - short presentations followed by an insightful and engaging discussion with the panellists and the audience.
16:45	Closing remarks by Benoît Mercuzot, Deputy Mayor and Vice-President for Innovation and Finance, Amiens Métropole.	Grand Amphi
17:00	A friendly get-together for all participants	Le Patio